The Latest on Obamacare Replacement Plan

Eleven days ago, House Speaker Paul Ryan said an Obamacare repeal bill would be introduced after the Presidents Day break. They all came back today, so we’ll see.

Congressman Dave Brat, a Republican from Virginia, got asked a question about Obamacare at a town hall meeting. He told the crowd the GOP has suggested principles, 18 bullet points and no budget numbers. But the basic components are a two-year transition path, state block grants for Medicaid, protection for pre-existing conditions, and buying across state lines. But conservatives are growing uneasy about the delay say: Just Repeal It. I agree. Get it done and get it gone.

“PAUL RYAN: Obamacare repeal bill will be out in a few weeks,” Bob Bryan, Business Insider, February 16, 2017.
