GOP Should Refuse to Play Obama's ACA Game

Tomorrow, the U.S. Supreme Court will hear arguments in the King vs. Burwell Obamacare case. But the battle over who will ultimately win began last year on November 7th, the day the Court announced they’d hear the case.

Democrats and liberals are worried that the Obama administration will lose, so they are trying to convince Republicans in Congress and Republican governors to save Obamacare for them.

They are applying pressure by claiming it’ll be a political suicide for Republicans if they don’t let the illegally-subsidized enrollees keep their subsidies. Getting Republicans to legalize this illegal expansion of Obamacare is part of Obama’s game plan. Republicans should refuse to play.
