Obamacare Will Be Overturned Public Says

A majority of Americans expect the Supreme Court to overturn Obamacare. Rasmussen Reports found 54 percent believe the government has no right to force people to buy health insurance. Only 26 percent think the law will be upheld. Twenty-one percent aren’t sure.

The decision’s already been made. The justices met Friday and left knowing the outcome, but we won’t know until June.

In the meantime, read or listen to the oral arguments. See how you think they’ll rule. The reading is good, but take it from me, the tapes are great. The tone, the interruptions, the feisty questions, are all worth the time to listen. Find the transcripts and mp3 files on our website.

“54% Expect U.S. Supreme Court To Overturn Health Care Law,” Rasmussen Reports, March 29, 2012.
