What is Up with Obamacare?

Rumors are everywhere about next steps for Obamacare. After the GOP failed to secure the votes they needed two weeks ago to pass a non-repeal bill, Speaker Paul Ryan called the Affordable Care Act “the law of the land.” But just four days later, he told the media that it’s not over and that “We’re going to get this right.” Less than a week later, HHS Secretary Tom Price also hinted that there may be another attempt to repeal the disaster called Obamacare.

Meanwhile, Congressman Mo Brooks, a Republican from Alabama, has filed a 2-page bill called the “ObamaCare Repeal Act” that uses a single sentence to fully repeal Obamacare. The only thing Americans asked for was repeal. Now is the time. Stay tuned.
