Administration Goes Dark on Obamacare

The Obama administration has gone silent. They quietly decided to stop reporting the monthly enrollment of Obamacare. After their claim of 8 million enrollees was announced in a May 1 report, that was it. No more reporting. Perhaps they don’t want to talk about the fact that 5,000 of Oregon’s 81,000 enrollees have already dropped coverage or been kicked out of Obamacare.

Changes in enrollment will happen for the next six months, but apparently the administration doesn’t want to report any number lower than 8 million – and even that number is suspect due to duplicate enrollments. The self-proclaimed most transparent administration just went dark.
