May 7, 2013

From Hillary's Alliance to Obama's Exchanges

One of the speakers at an Obamacare Exchange conference showcased a revealing chart. It showed how we’ve gone from the 1980’s managed competition theory to the proposed regional alliances in HillaryCare to today’s Obamacare health insurance exchanges, which are now euphemistically called “marketplaces.” Notably all of them are managed care/HMO models.

Proponents of socialized medicine have never given up. The names may change but the goal has always been the nationalization of our health care system. But take heart. Even though the Exchanges are in law, that doesn’t mean they’ll succeed. Stopping exchanges is as easy as discouraging enrollment. Make it your mission.

![Evolution of Health Insurance Exchanges: Conceptual Models]

Presented daily by Twila Brase, President, Citizens’ Council for Health Freedom.

The Health Freedom Minute is now heard in 37 states: Mornings M-Th at AM1280 (The Patriot) in MN and 91.5 AM WHKC (FreedomFM) in OH, afternoons on American Family Radio, and daily on the Bott Radio Network.