What Will Convention Mean For Freedom?

Next week will be historic. At least that’s my prediction. The Republican National Convention takes place in Cleveland. By next Thursday, the Republican nominee for President of the United States will be crowned. It could be that Donald Trump will be nominated without debate, denial, or dissent. Then again, something else could happen. Let me know if you’ll be there.

The Democrat convention follows the next week. Will it be Hillary Clinton or will the new State Department investigation mean her defeat? Whatever happens, what will it all mean for Obamacare, medical ethics, doctor and patient freedom, Medicare insolvency and medical and genetic privacy? That is the million-dollar question. Will we have more or less freedom?
