Democrats Have Enacted a Disaster

Obamacare defines full-time as 30 hours. The law requires employers with 50 full-time workers or more to offer health insurance or pay a fine of $2000 per workers, except for the first 30 workers. Thus an employer with 100 workers who does not offer insurance will be fined $140,000 for 70 employees. To avoid this penalty, some employers are cutting worker hours to 29 hours or less.

The “Forty Hours is Full Time Act [of 2013]” has been introduced in Congress. But will this restrict working to 39 hours? The unintended consequences of Obamacare are huge. The Democrats have enacted a disaster.
