Medicare Entrapment

Did you know that you don’t really have a choice about enrolling in Medicare? If you refuse, you’ll lose your social security payments. So if you’re 18 or 25, look at your paycheck and realize that deductions for social security in the years to come will disappear if you refuse to enroll in the government’s single-payer system for seniors.

And if you choose to use a doctor who’s opted out of Medicare and refused to accept Medicare’s regulatory morass, expense, control and threat of imprisonment for the smallest of billing errors, you will have to pay for the care with your own dollars. So you pay Social Security and the Medicare payroll tax for your entire working life, but bureaucrats have authority to deprive you of every last dollar.
