American 9/11 Spirit of Courage

Yesterday was the 15th anniversary of the 9/11 terrorist attack. Osama Bin Laden likely chose that day because another way to say 9/11 is 9-1-1. I think that symbolism was part of his plan. Rogue jets crashing into towers elicited a nationwide 9-1-1 response at fire stations, air traffic control towers, military installations and in every town and every home.

September 11, 2001 should be remembered not only for the horror wrought by suicidal terrorists upon our nation, but also for the good we saw in the American people. May that spirit of generosity, courage, hope and the undeterred grit always be our first impulse.
