Oct 1st is First Day to Refuse to Enroll

There is no Obamacare deadline. The focus on October 1 is a marketing ploy to create panic and urgency for enrollment in Obamacare exchanges. As a reminder, the exchanges are the Obamacare implementation centers. They are the IRS enforcement centers.

The exchanges, under federal control, will track and report your insurance status and create the largest computerized network and central database in the nation, all for implementing Obamacare and conducting its surveillance and enforcement activities. Exchanges need enrollees to survive financially. Don’t be one of them. Tomorrow is the first day to refuse to enroll in Obamacare. Refuse to enroll.
