Obamacare Slush Funds

A federal judge ruled in favor of a Republican lawsuit on Obamacare. In short, the Obama administration is unlawfully spending money to pay for the deductibles and out-of-pocket costs of millions of low income people on the Obamacare exchanges.

Obamacare authorizes these cost-sharing payments, but Congress never appropriated any money for the program. These unlawful expenditures are coming out of your pockets; taxpayer pockets.

Don’t you wonder where money comes from if money wasn’t ever given? I think there are all sorts of agency slush funds that Congress has no idea exist. The administration is expected to appeal and until it does, the judge allows the spending from who knows what slush fund to continue.
