Animal Farm* Health Care

Welcome to the Health Freedom Minute. This is Twila Brase president of Citizens’ Council on Health Care.

McDonald’s and 29 other companies are exempt from ObamaCare coverage requirements until 2014.

McDonald’s has a mini-med program. The program does not meet the law’s new requirements. McDonald’s told federal officials they might drop the program if they didn’t receive an exemption from the minimum annual benefit requirement. They wanted 115,000 workers exempted. The federal government only exempted the 30,000 in McDonald’s mini-med program.

In New York, 351,000 members of a teacher’s union were exempted. In all, nearly one million workers were told they don’t have to follow the law or pay the high price of compliance. Take note. You are probably not one of them. As in Animal Farm*, it appears all people are equal, but some people are more equal than others.
