Welcome to the Health Freedom Minute. This is Twila Brase, president of Citizens’ Council for Health Freedom.

When Mark Steyn spoke at our event in November, he discussed the brevity of the English law that imposed the tax on tea. It was just one page and everyone was under that law. Everyone had to pay the tax.

Mark said ObamaCare is 2500 pages long because Congress wrote in exemptions for this group or that group, leaving some favored and others penalized. In short, the Obama Administration hand-picked the winners and losers under ObamaCare.

John Goodman from the National Center for Policy Analysis (NCPA) estimates that 50 million people will gain from health reform: the 32 million newly insured, plus some people with high medical costs. The other 250 million, he writes, will lose more than they gain.
