December 24, 2010

ObamaCare Cuts Costs? Ask These Folks!

Welcome to the Health Freedom Minute. This is Twila Brase, president of Citizens’ Council for Health Freedom.

President Obama promised that Obamacare would cut costs. We never believed him, but the real evidence of how not true that promise was is now emerging. The Wall Street Journal recently reported on the new expenses for business.

SAS Institute, a software company, is doubling its legal and consultant expenses for 2011. One SAS executive says, “There’s administrative burden just to try and understand the 2,400 pages of the document.” Another company, Borders Group, increased their consulting expenses by 20% to deal with the law.

A survey conducted by Ernst & Young found that 30% of 380 executives are concerned with the cost of compliance.

Listen again at healthfreedomminute.net.