April 14, 2010

Pass the Bill to Find Out What’s In It?

Welcome to the Health Freedom Minute. This is Twila Brase president of Citizens’ Council on Health Care.

Nancy Pelosi once claimed that they had to pass the health care bill so they could figure out what’s in it. Well, Congress just learned from their own research service that they may no longer be eligible for the generous federal employees’ health benefits program.

How fitting. But members of Congress are shocked.

The New York Times noted yesterday, if they did not know exactly what they were doing to themselves, did lawmakers who wrote and passed the bill fully grasp the details of how it would influence the lives of other Americans?

Remember when President Obama said, “if you like your coverage you can keep it”? I guess he never read the bill.

Watch as Congress tries to reassert a privileged status over the rest of us. As Ed Morrissey at Hot Air Blog writes, perhaps someone should sue them if they do.

For more information, go to healthfreedomminute.net.