May 10, 2011

Queen Sebelius Rules

Welcome to the Health Freedom Minute. This is Twila Brase, president of Citizens’ Council for Health Freedom.

Obamacare has birthed a power-hungry queen. Kathleen Sebelius sits on an imaginary throne in Washington, D.C. as Secretary of Health and Human Services.

In the last few months, we’ve seen her ruthless rulings. Last December, Ms. Sebelius told insurers she’d ban them from her Health Insurance Exchanges if they showed a pattern of unjustified rate increases, as determined by her.

This month, she sent a letter to the CEO of a small pharmaceutical company banning him from selling medications to Medicare and Medicaid patients, even though there’s no proof he’s done anything wrong. As the Wall Street Journal reports, her decision could ruin him, but Queen Sebelius doesn’t seem to care. She’s got a kingdom to run.

Sign up for our monthly Health Freedom Watch newsletter at healthfreedomminute.net.

The Health Freedom Minute is now heard in 37 states: Mornings M-Th at AM1280 (The Patriot) in MN and 91.5 AM WHKC (FreedomFM) in OH and afternoons on American Family Radio.