Waiting in Line for Government

Welcome to the Health Freedom Minute. This is Twila Brase president of Citizens’ Council on Health Care.

How long will you wait under ObamaCare?

Yesterday, I went the to post office. Several people, arms full of boxes, were waiting in line, but there was no government worker in sight.

I asked the woman ahead of me, “Does anyone know we’re here?” She didn’t know. The man at the head of the line didn’t know.

Amazing. How long were they willing to wait without making a noise? Then one of the construction workers on site went behind the back wall.

Out popped a postal worker, phone in hand. She told her caller that she had to go because there was a whole line of people waiting.

Imagine waiting on the government when you’re a patient. Imagine having to sign up for health insurance at the government exchange. How long will you be willing to wait?
