Minnesota Task Force Charade

Welcome to the Health Freedom Minute. This is Twila Brase president of Citizens’ Council on Health Care.

Last week, Governor Pawlenty’s newly formed Minnesota Health Care Reform Task Force met—for their first and last meeting.

The members of the task force got little opportunity to speak during the three hour meeting. There were introductions, a one hour presentation by four government bureaucrats, 60 minutes for the 17 members and no discussion. This was a charade for which taxpayers paid $198,000.

The real ObamaCare work is happening in Rep. Tom Huntley’s DFL-led health care access commission. Four new subcommittees to implement ObamaCare were announced last week.

The 2010 election will determine whether Minnesota will follow like lemmings over the ObamaCare cliff or lead the way back to state sovereignty and health freedom.
