Obamacare Ruling is a Fun Read

Welcome to the Health Freedom Minute. This is Twila Brase, president of Citizens’ Council for Health Freedom.

Thirty lawsuits have been filed against Obamacare. There have been 18 decisions, 12 appeals and two appeals court rulings, one in support of the health insurance mandate and one that ruled it unconstitutional.

The recent Eleventh Circuit Court of Appeals ruling against the mandate was co-written by political opposites. Judge Hull was appointed by Bill Clinton and Judge Dubina by George H.W. Bush.

If you’re conservative, the ruling will be a fun read. Several points made against the administration may even amuse. If you’re left-leaning, you might see how the mandate to purchase health insurance today could lead to a mandate to buy a smaller house tomorrow.

We put the judge’s ruling on our website. Just click on the home page at healthfreedomminute.net.

The Health Freedom Minute is heard on 144 stations in 37 states, including afternoons on American Family Radio.
