Insurance Workers to Lose Jobs

Welcome to the Health Freedom Minute. This is Twila Brase president of Citizens' Council on Health Care.

Health policy expert Greg Scandlen spoke to insurance underwriters a few weeks ago. He said Washington intends to put health insurance agents, brokers and underwriters out of business. ObamaCare doesn't require their services and broker commissions have just been classified officially as administration.

This means payments to insurance underwriters, brokers and agents may soon be called wasteful administration.

Under ObamaCare, government bureaucracies called Exchanges will sell insurance. Many employers will drop coverage, pay a fine and send their employees to the Exchange. The only insurance plans allowed are called Bronze, Silver, Gold, and Platinum. Without a repeal, tens of thousands of health insurance workers may soon find themselves unemployed, on Medicaid and in the Exchange.
