Six Months of ObamaCare and Counting

Welcome to the Health Freedom Minute. This is Twila Brase president of Citizens’ Council on Health Care.

Six months ago today, on March 23rd, President Obama signed ObamaCare into law. At the White House, there was celebration, pontification, and jubilation. It was literally a love fest of the left.

So, how’s it all working out? The Dems are running from health reform. According to Politico, Democratic candidates have poured $930,000 into ads deriding the overhaul but just $300,000 into ads supporting it. In Mississippi, Rep. Gene Taylor is the first Democrat to sign onto a Republican discharge petition to force a vote on repealing ObamaCare.

The next six months should prove very interesting. There’s the election, several lawsuits, administrative threats against insurer price hikes and much more to come.
