$1 Trillion Reasons to Overturn Obamacare

Health insurers will reap a $1 trillion dollar windfall over the next eight years if Obamacare is not overturned, according to a study released last week. That's a 12-figure gift from President Obama, who often publicly chastises health plans. Don't believe him. He's counting on the plans to run the government system.

Insurers will get $577 billion dollars in premium subsidies and $669 billion dollars to enroll more Medicaid recipients. But these $1 trillion dollars from taxpayers will only be available to insurers offering insurance through Obama's exchanges, the federal takeover centers. Before Obama takes and gives away our wealth, the Supreme Court should strike down the law.
