Does Bobby Kennedy Know What Those Words Really Mean?

Last week, Bobby Kennedy was grilled by the Senate Finance Committee. He did well despite some of the comments and insults hurled at him. I got the sense that he really cares about people. Senator Ron Johnson from Wisconsin called Bobby Kennedy an “answer to my prayers.” As you know, Ron Johnson is the only Senator that has held hearings to bring light to the injuries from, and realities of, the Covid shot.

I was most interested in his comments on health care in general, including Medicare. He supports the buzzwords, “value-based” care and “evidence-based medicine,” but I doubt he knows what they really mean. The words don’t likely mean what you or Bobby thinks they mean. If he’s confirmed, we’ll work to change that.
