Health Care Costs are Legalized Theft

In 2025, health care costs for a family of four with employer-sponsored coverage is up $2,000 to $35,119. Health care costs for the average person increased 6.7%, to nearly $8,000 from 2024 to 2025.

Isn't there something incredibly wrong with health insurance costing you every year in premiums and lost wages the price of a brand-new SUV you could keep for 10 years or more?

Obamacare and third-party payment for health insurance did this. You would never pay what your employer is willing to pay for your coverage, but it means lower wages for you. This is legalized theft. We need affordable, real health insurance, and the unaffordable prepaid health plans must be eliminated.
