Four States Sell Ivermectin OTC

Ivermectin freedom is growing. To date, four states have passed laws allowing ivermectin to be sold and purchased over-the-counter (OTC). These include Tennessee, Arkansas, Idaho, and Louisiana. State legislators are not only standing up for patient's rights and physician freedom, they're protecting lives. Many Americans were desperately trying to buy it during Covid to save their life.

In nine other states, bills have been introduced to free American access to this cheap, safe and effective wonder drug whose creator received a Nobel prize. States with pending legislation include Texas, New Hampshire, North Carolina, Pennsylvania, Georgia, Alabama, West Virginia, Missouri, and South Carolina.

"These States Now Allow OTC Ivermectin, and More May Follow,"
