What Else is Pfizer Hiding?

In a story you might have missed, Pfizer once sought emergency use authorization for its Covid shot in India. But health authorities refused, saying its “committee noted that incidents of palsy, anaphylaxis and other [serious adverse events]” had been reported and “causality of the events with the vaccine” was being “investigated.” Pfizer had also not proposed any plan to generate safety data for their population.

Rather than show proof of safety, Pfizer withdrew its application and lost access to 1.3 billion customers. Pfizer must like to hide. With the help of the FDA, it tried to keep the results of the Covid clinical trials hidden for 55 years. What else is Pfizer hiding today that has nothing to do with Covid?
