TSA Totalitarianism on Display

On November 20th, the TSA announced a “modernized alternative identity verification system” and an $18 “fine” if you come without a REAL ID or acceptable ID to the airport. They call it a fee, but it’s really a fine.

Ten days later, the TSA issued a press release calling the new verification system TSA Confirm.ID. And the “fine” was increased to $45 for a 10-day travel period. Perhaps $18 was not enough to get Americans to submit.

I am calling on you to refuse the REAL ID, a soon-to-be-digitized Federal ID and tracking system. If you fly, get a passport and passport card. Look ahead, look overseas, look to China’s social credit system, and realize the future of REAL ID.
