Why DNA Contamination in Covid Shots was Missed

When genomics scientist Kevin McKernan discovered Pfizer and Moderna vaccine was contaminated with DNA fragments 18-70 times higher than regulations allowed, his assertions were dismissed.

McKernan's new study explains why regulators missed the DNA. They were using a test that could not see the DNA because the DNA was bound to the RNA. When his lab used a different test, they found a 100 to 1000-fold higher amount of spike DNA.

Concerned scientists, including those worried about the SV40 DNA virus known to cause cancer, were deemed conspiracy theorists, so Americans continued to get the injections. Is that the cause of all the turbo cancers? And if so, who will be held accountable?
