Use “Big Brother” Book to Tell the Truth About HIPAA

Today is the 23rd anniversary of HIPAA, the rule that ended your medical privacy. Big Business and Big Government wanted your data for profit and to control doctors. They wanted it digitized and in easily-accessible computerized medical records. HIPAA and the electronic health record mandate made their wish come true.

If you wonder how it happened and who pushed Congress, Bill Clinton, George W. Bush and Obama to let outsiders slice and dice the details of your life without your consent, buy my book: Big Brother in the Exam Room, now in its fourth printing. I name names, and back up everything. I've been told it's the best history written of how it happened. Find the book online: Big Brother in the Exam Room. Use it to tell the truth about HIPAA.
