White House Honors Mothers: MOMS.GOV

On Mother's Day, the White House and the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services debuted Moms.gov, a website for expectant and new mothers.

HHS Secretary Bobby Kennedy says the website “delivers critical tools and support to help parents foster healthy pregnancies, strengthen young families, and create brighter futures for their children.”

On the website is information on pregnancy centers, nutrition, breastfeeding, adoption, TrumpRx, and more. Planned Parenthood is not mentioned, likely because this site supports the life and health of mothers and babies.

On July 4th, the one-year ban on funding for Planned Parenthood expires. Congress must continue to protect the preborn child's right to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness.
