Ivermectin is “Normalized” in England

Prescriptions for ivermectin are soaring in England. According to Dr. Tess Lawrie, the 33 prescriptions per month in 2020 is now 11,000 prescriptions per month. It started with a few doctors doing the right thing, grew through word of mouth, and then mainstream doctors began to prescribe it because U.S. policy shifted. And now it's been normalized.

Dr. Lawrie says, “the same NHS [National Health Service] that [told] patients ivermectin was dangerous horse paste is now quietly dispensing it at a rate of over 10,000 prescriptions a month.” Well, this is only because brave doctors and determined patients like you refused to be told no to a drug that could save your life. And now five U.S. states permit it to be sold over the counter! Congratulations and thank you!
