America Wrote the Nuremberg Code

The Nuremberg Code, used in the trial of Nazi doctors, was written by Americans. Three judges and two doctors. The first principle is the foundation of medical ethics: “The voluntary consent of the human subject is absolutely essential.” It prohibits force, fraud, deceit, duress, and any form of coercion.

But the Code was never written into American law. Law professor George Annas once warned, “When national security is invoked, human rights continue to take second place to the demands of state officials...” And thus, we saw Covid coercion. Tell RFK Jr to add informed consent to federal vaccine policy. Only 18 days left to submit a public comment. Go to CCHFreedom.org
