Who Needs the W.H.O.? Not You.

The controversial World Health Organization will soon have a new leader. As you may recall the WHO took the lead in perpetuating the Covid narrative. The WHO is currently run by a Marxist reportedly close to Chinese leaders.

Thankfully, President Trump pulled the plug on funding the WHO in January 2025. It had to slash its planned budget by a billion dollars.

In good news, US withdrawal has caused the WHO to eliminate over 2,300 positions, roughly a quarter of its global staff, and cut its operational departments in half.

Name me one thing that the WHO has done to improve your life.

Hopefully, the WHO continues to face financial headwinds until the day that it closes its doors.
