Does Trump Plan to Stop Obamacare Redistribution of Incomes?

President Harry Truman wanted national health care. He got Medicare. At the signing ceremony in 1965, the Social Security Administration website says, "…President Johnson enrolled President Truman as the first Medicare beneficiary and presented him with the first Medicare card." That day Truman applied for Part B coverage at a cost of $3.00.

Medicare launched socialized medicine. As Medicare goes bankrupt, seniors stuck with nowhere else to go may pay with their lives as care is denied. Medicare for All has nothing to do with good medicine. It would simply give politicians a lifetime guarantee that Medicare-dependent Americans will vote them into power every election.
